MARATHON CLASSIC WOMEN'S SUMMIT:

CONNECTING FORE IMPACT

Tuesday, July 10, 2018 –
Highland Meadows Golf Club
Champions Pavilion

Enjoy an afternoon of lunch, networking and our keynote speakers who will share their personal journeys on connecting with self and with others to lead a fulfilling and balanced life.

Hannah Storm is an award-winning journalist, producer and director, a pioneer in the field of sports broadcasting for women, an advocate for children's issues, and a published author. Currently, she serves as the anchor of ESPN's SportsCenter Face to Face. Meet and listen to Hannah as she shares her personal journey and the importance of making meaningful connections for success in life.

Mallika Chopra is a mother, media entrepreneur, and published author of several books. She is the founder of Intent.com, a website focused on personal, social and global wellness. Mallika is also the founder of The Chopra Well, a premiere YouTube channel she launched with her brother and father, Deepak Chopra. Hear her heartwarming, authentic and real-life story (and the title of her latest book), "Living with Intent: My Somewhat Messy Journey to Purpose, Peace, and Joy." Learn how mindful listening and meditation can make a difference in your life, too.

I.K. Kim, affectionately known as "Income Kim" and "Inky", has won 7 LPGA tour events and was the winner of last year's Marathon Classic. I.K. will join the stage to share how she makes connections on the world stage of professional women's golf. She'll also discuss how meditation and peace of mind help her face tough challenges both on and off the course.
